

Craft Beer - $8 Each

601: Canary in the Cold Mine

Brewed with 2 row barley, Vienna and a pinch of white wheat for malty notes of light toast, biscuit & wheat bread; lightly hopped with Czech Saaz and Simcoe hops for hints of earth and spice to help balance this light, dry, and crisp finisher with no lingering bitterness 5.0% ABV / ~18 IBUs

603: Kolsch - A German Style Ale

Brewed with over 70% traditional Pilsen malt, and brewed with Northern Brewer hops for hints of grass and spice. This is a fresh, crisp, & refreshingly light German style ale... guaranteed to satisfy even on a cold day... 4.0% ABV / ~15 IBUs

605: Ninja Boots – East Coast IPA

Brewed with 2-row barley, CaraFoam, Vienna, and acidulated malts; then heavily hopped with Mosaic, Idaho 7, & Vic Secret hops—added in both the whirlpool and in the dry hop! Notes and flavors of tropical citrus, pine, resin, and juiciness all combine for a “sneaky” juicy IPA with a bit of kick! 7.0% ABV / ~30 IBUs

607: Toller than the Trees – A New England IPA

Known for their lower bittering, fruitier nose and juicy mouthfeel, and a hazier appearance. Notes of passionfruit, guava, papaya, and tropical citrus all come from the large quantities of Amarillo, Citra, and CRYO POP hops used in the whirlpool and double dry-hopped! 6.5% ABV / ~22 IBUs

609: Troeg's Perpetual IPA – Imperial Pale Ale

Cycling through HopBack vessel and dry-hopping method, this bold imperial ale emerges with sticky citrus rind, pine balm, and tropical fruit.

611: Daddy Fat Sacks IPA – Dry IPA with Tropical Fruit

Brewed with quality American 2-Row leaving a blank slate for the hops to explode. Hopped lightly during the boil and dry hopped excessively with Citra and Cascade.
